MARK/3

6 Read the beginning of the story. Are sentences 1–7 true (T) or false (F)?

Jonathan Cranberry woke up suddenly. He thought he heard a noise in the study downstairs. Perhaps it was the cat. He looked at his watch. It was seven o'clock. Jonathan got up and went across to the window. He looked out. The sun was shining. It was going to be a beautiful day. Two people were running down the road – a man and a woman, he thought. But he couldn't see them well.

He put on his clothes and went downstairs. The study door was open. Jonathan walked in – and then he stopped suddenly. A woman was lying on the floor. She was wearing lots of jewels – and she was dead! There was a gun in her hand. Who was she? Jonathan had no idea. While he was thinking what to do, the phone rang.

1 Jonathan saw a cat in his room.

2 He opened the window.

3 Jonathan saw two people outside.

4 They were walking slowly.

5 He saw a woman in the study.

6 The woman was sitting in an armchair.

7 This is the beginning of a Whodunnit.

MARK/7

7 Continue the story. Write three more sentences.
